Catholic School Direct

We are delighted to be able to offer Maths, Physics, Chemistry, Computing and Languages undergraduates the opportunity to earn £900 in June / July 2024 on the Department for Education Internship Scheme to learn about teaching at a secondary level.

Wigan and West Lancashire Catholic School Direct is now taking applications for our Teaching Internships Programme for Summer 2024.

The aim of the programme is to enable undergraduates studying for a degree in a STEM or MFL related degree the opportunity to experience teaching.

Internships are available in Maths, Physics, Chemistry, MFL and Computing and give you the chance to spend time in a secondary school before committing to teaching as a career. This might be the start of a fantastic career for you with follow-up support for applying to teacher training if you decide it is the career for you.

The programme is part of the Get into Teaching service, supporting prospective teachers throughout their journey into the profession.

If you are interested in applying or would like more information visit our website

www.catholicisd.org.uk/internships for more information or to start your application.

The programme:

- Will run towards the end of the academic year and will last for three weeks (24th June—12th July 2024)
- Will offer structured activities to gain a deep experience of teaching, with access to one-to-one mentors, and opportunities to network with subject specialists
- Will support you with an application for teaching if you decide it is the career for you.

All interns joining the programme will receive:

- An induction to the programme and our partnership
- Initial safeguarding training
- Subject Specific development opportunities
- High quality mentoring
- Opportunities to team teach
- Wider opportunities in the life of the school
- An enhanced DBS certificate
- £300 per week of the programme
